

True competition cannot exist in the telecommunication long distance industry until SBC is allowed to provide the same services to customers that Worldcom, AT&T and other carriers do. This is a long time coming!